SONG OF THE WEEK

Psalter # 265

*By Babel's riverside we sat in tears,
Rememb'ring Zion's pride in former years,
While on the weeping willows there were hung
The harps our grief had silenced and unstrung.*

*Yea, let my tongue, I pray, all silent be,
If I do not always remember Thee;
If I prefer not Thee, though in Thy grief,
Above all other joys my very chief.*
